SUNDAY MASS digging deeper The Intercom

Liturgy- refers to all the official public prayer rituals of the Church Lectionary-the name of the liturgical book from which the readings are proclaimed. Taken from the bible, the scripture texts have been specially selected for each celebration of liturgy.

There are 3 lectionaries -

1. for Sundays, feasts and seasons
2. for weekdays in ordinary time and
3. for ritual celebrations (weddings, funerals etc).

Lector- the Latin word for Reader, sometimes used for the parish Reader.

Liturgical Year- beginning on the First Sunday of Advent, in the LY the Church celebrates the whole mystery of Christ from the Incarnation until the day of Pentecost and the expectation of Christ's second coming through the seasons of Advent, the Christmas Season, Lent, the Easter Season and Ordinary Time. The highpoint of the year is Easter; the highpoint of the week is Sunday. The readings are chosen specifically for the season we are in within the LY. Lectern - the place in the sanctuary area reserved for the proclamation of the readings. This is the table of God's word. Often called the Ambo.

THOUGHT for the DAY
Archbishop Eamon Martin. The Intercom

Red Wednesday

The fact that persecution and martyrdom of our fellow Christians continues today in many parts of the world invites us to consider how we ourselves witness to our faith in Irish society. We are all called to be prophetic in shining the light and truth of the Gospel into the world, even when it brings ridicule, insult, criticism or leads to our being ostracised in public discourse.

On Red Wednesday, I invite you to pray for the gift of courage, the grace of witness and loyalty to Christ for Christians here in Ireland and all over the world, and especially for those who continue to be challenged, attacked, displaced or even murdered for what they believe in.
